INDRADHANUSH 2008 is a kaleidoscope of different dance and music items presented by the little wonders, budding classical dancers and singers and special children of A.L.P.A.N.A. As the rainbow with its vibrant colours fills the heart of the beholder with joy and enjoyment, our artists will mesmerize the audience with different varieties of dance and music.

INDRADHANUSH starts with a Bhajan Hey Govind, Hey Gopala... presented by our talented singers. The song is based on Raga: Bhairavi and Taal: Dadra

Traditionally an Odissi dance recital starts with Mangalacharana, where the dancer dedicates herself to the Almighty and begs forgiveness from Mother Earth for stamping feet on Her, begs apology from the audience of any shortcomings and pays obeisance and seeks blessings from her Guru. In Mangalacharana dancers will begin with a prayer to Lord Ganesha, the destroyer of all obstacles, the God of Wisdom and

As a small seed grows gradually into a large tree, in Pallavi, a tune is sung in a particular raga and it develops gradually into different varieties. In this item equal importance is given to dance as well as music and rhythm. The movements in this item are extremely graceful and lyrical.

In this Abhinaya, Sakhi, a friend of Radha describes the beauty of Lord Krishna who is enjoying
